UNIQUE ITEM: WORKING CHESS CHAMPION MARK V TOGETHER WITH ITS PROTOTYPE

The Chess Champion Mark V is itself quite rare but this one is complete in the original packaging (which is extremely rare). What makes the item unique is the inclusion of the original prototype (signed by Grandmasters Mikhail Botvinnik - World Champion 1948-57, 1958-60 and 1961-1963, Ludek Pachman & Helmut Pfleger) which was much travelled - Denmark, Ireland & Germany (among other countries). The three GMs signed it in Germany (I forget the city but in those days it was one city one day and another city the next) while in Ireland it performed creditably in the Man v. Machine contest at Trinity College, Dublin in 1981. Later in 1981 an early production model acquired the title of 1981 World Champion (Commercial Class). Another production model became the first computer ever to play in a human world championship event, finishing a very creditable 12th/16 in the Asian Women's Zonal tournament in Baguio City (site of the Karpov-Korchnoi world championship match). Included in the package is a printout (believed also to be unique) of 14 of the 15 zonal tournament games (for some reason the round 8 game is missing), all of which are annotated by O'Connell & Levy, and a cross-table of the tournament.

The machine itself is in very good condition and the packaging is in good condition.
